

International Educational Program
«Russian Business and Investment Law»

The name of the Educational Program	«Russian Business and Investment Law»
Major	Jurisprudence 40.04.01
Qualification (degree)	Master
Year of implementation	2019
Partner(-s) in Educational Program (proposed)	Korea University/ Korean-Russian Business Law Association/ Dong-A University (Republic of Korea)/ University of Oregon (USA) / Heilongjiang University / China University of Political Science and Law (PRC)
Participation of Partners in implementation of the EP	Delivering research seminars and lectures by partners' representatives on the comparative studies under the EP
The University's division, conducting the EP	School of Law, FEFU
Document(-s) issued to graduates of the EP	Master's degree in Law (LL.M. in Russian Business and Investment Law)
Duration, mode of study	2,5 years, extramural education
Language of the EP	English
Educational Program model (in what time frame and where the student is studying)	The course is mainly delivered online through the written correspondence and videoconferences. One examination a year with duration of 3 weeks.
Requirements for admission to the EP, terms of admission	All candidates entering the master's educational program, «Russian Business and Investment Law» should have higher education diploma with the degree of the bachelor, specialist or master issued by the Russian Federation or by a foreign State. They should have level of English proficiency sufficient for successful development of the program. While, availability of the official documents on successful passing TOEFL or IELTS could be the basis for their priority enrollment to EP. Candidates responding the abovementioned requirements are taken to the program by the results of entrance tests and the interview conducted in English.
Academic mobility of the students,	Foreign students do internships in law firms and business companies in Russia or using our Partners' base.

internships, practical work, educational modules on the Partners' base, with the indication of the training periods	Introductory practical training – 2 weeks. Professional – 8 weeks.
Faculty academic mobility during the EP	Teaching separate courses and passing examinations on the Partners' base are possible.
Requirements of FEFU and Partners to the results of student's training: Professional competences students of the Educational Program necessarily should acquire.	A graduate of the EP «Russian Business and Investment Law» must have the competences provided by the FEFU Educational standard in the major 40.04.01 Jurisprudence.
Requirements of FEFU and Partners to the results of students' training: Students' soft skills	1) ability to analyze and understand the modern processes and directions of legal regulation in the sphere of international business and investment operations in the Russian Federation, including foreign participation; 2) complex knowledge about the technicalities of public and private legal regulation of international economic relations; 3) ability to understand the essence and content of Russian branch-oriented legal regulation: constitutional, civil, criminal, tax, labor, etc.; 4) skills of getting necessary information about international and national legal ensuring of economic cooperation between Russia and Countries of the Asia-Pacific Region; 5) development of necessary practical skills in the sphere of legal support of business transactions in Russia.
Organizations that could be interested in the implementation of the EP	International and foreign companies, law associations, foreign universities, state and private companies, bodies and organizations whose activities are related to international business and business operations involving Russian and foreign individuals and organizations.
Head of LL.M. program	Natalia G. Prisekina, LL.M., Ph.D. in Law, Professor of Public and Private International Law Chair, School of Law, FEFU. Email: prisekina.ng@dvfu.ru