Gyeongbokgung was the main royal palace of the Joseon dynasty. Built in 1395, it is located in northern Seoul, South Korea. The largest of the Five Grand Palaces built by the Joseon dynasty, Gyeongbokgung served as the home of Kings of the Joseon dynasty, the Kings' households, as well as the government of Joseon.

Insadong

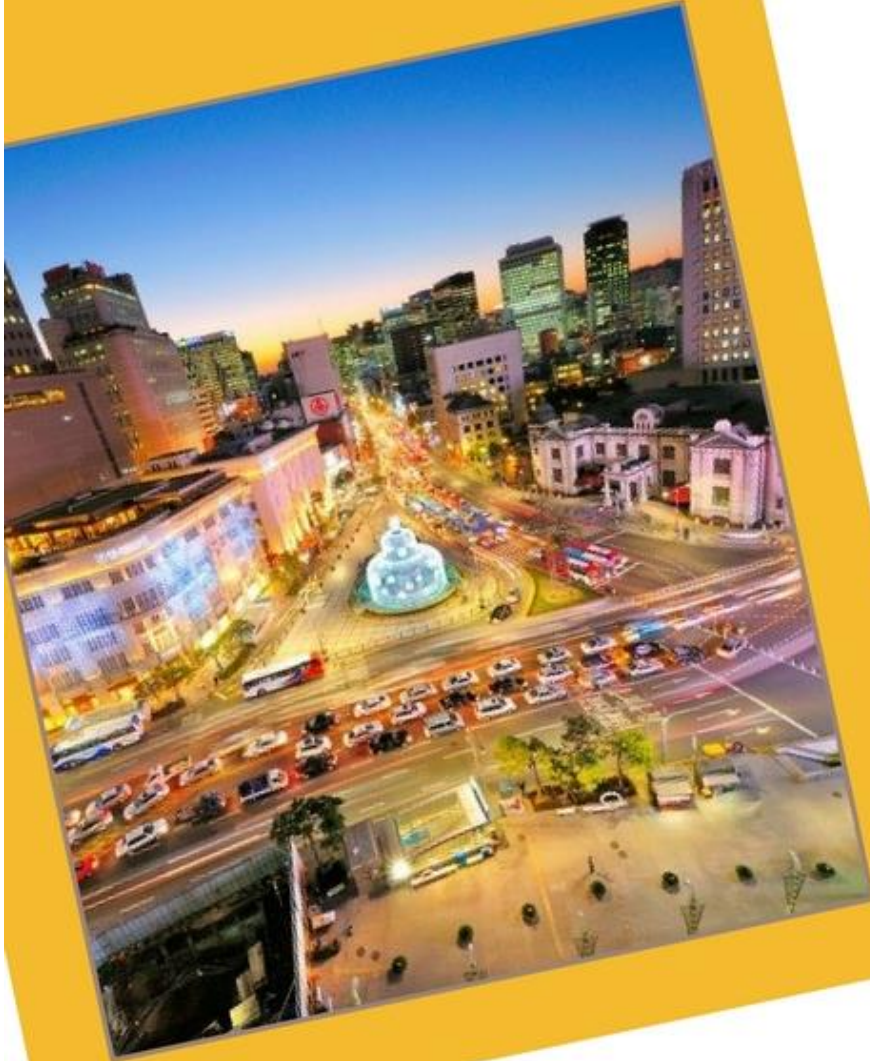

SUMMER 2017

Insadong Street is one of the most memorable attractions in Seoul and represents the focal point of Korean traditional culture and crafts. Stores in Insa-dong specialize in a wide variety of goods that can only be purchased or appreciated in Korea: hanbok (traditional clothing), hanji (traditional paper), traditional teas, pottery, and folk crafts.

Myeongdong

SUMMER 2017

Myeong-dong is one of the primary shopping districts in Seoul. Many brand name shops and department stores line the streets and alleys. Common products for sale include clothes, shoes, and accessories. Unlike Namdaemun or Dongdaemun, many designer brands are sold in Myeong-dong. In addition, several major department stores have branches here. The department stores carry many premium labels and other fashionable goods at reasonable prices.

Yongsan Techno-Mart

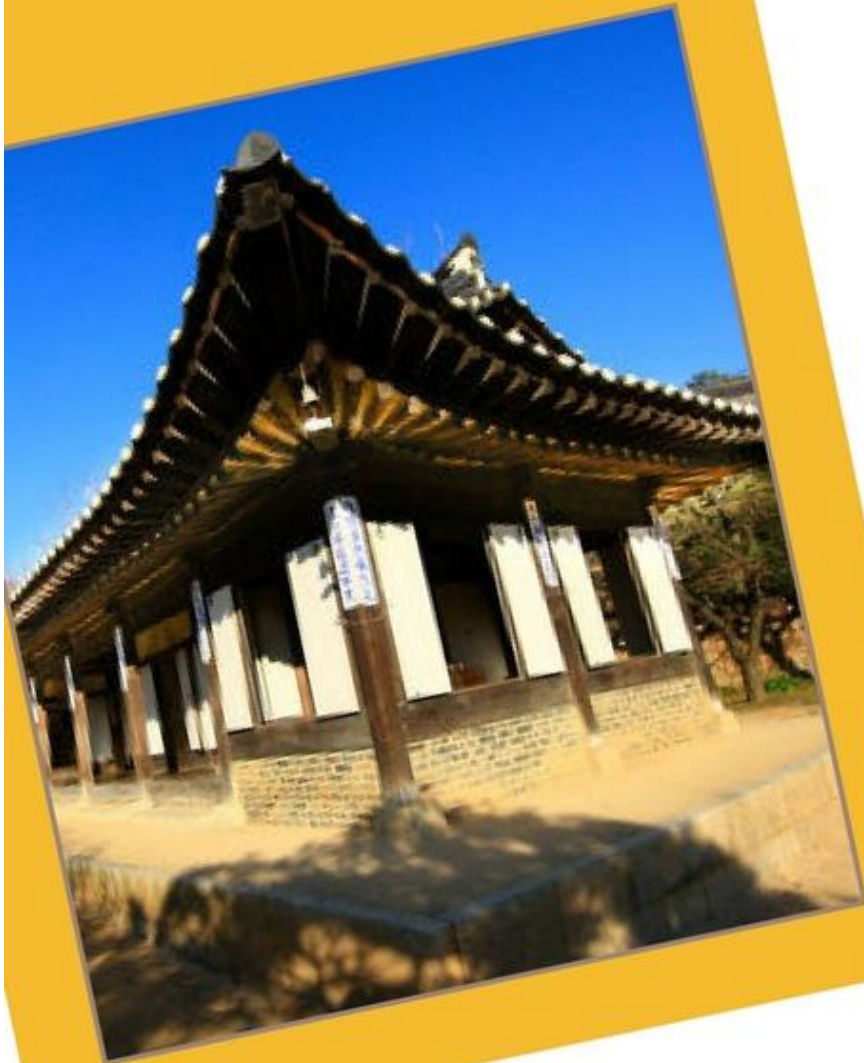

SUMMER 2017

Techno Mart is Korea's largest electronics shopping center, housing 2,000 stores packed with high-tech products. It offers a variety of electronic goods including digital cameras, computers, MP3 players, sound systems, CDs, DVDs, communication equipment, IT equipment and more. In order to provide a differentiated service in the style of a department store with product-specific marketing, the center displays each item with labeled prices and provides high-class service for customers. Undoubtedly, it has grown to become a must for fans of electronics and technology from all over the world.

Korean Folk-Village

SUMMER 2017

Korean Folk Village introduces traditional culture from the late Joseon period to both local and international visitors through cultural classes experience, shaman faith, seasonal customs and others. Also, the village shows various places with unique features such as a farming village, private house, official districts, Confucian academy, Seodang (village school), and a village street in realistic descriptions, as well as, a nobleman's house and traditional workshop. Performances including Nongak (farmer's music), martial art on horseback, traditional wedding ceremony, and other special events are available by season.

Namsan Tower

SUMMER 2017

Namsan Tower is 236.7 meter tower sits atop Namsan Mountain (243m). The observatory offers panoramic views of Seoul and the surrounding areas. Namsan Tower is the very place to enjoy the entire city of Seoul.

Situated on top of the N Plaza, the Roof Terrace is a spacious wooden viewing deck whose exotic atmosphere makes it very popular with lovers. A recent attraction for courting couples is "Locks of Love," thousands of padlocks attached to the fence by romantic Seoulites symbolizing their undying affection.

Dongdaemun Market

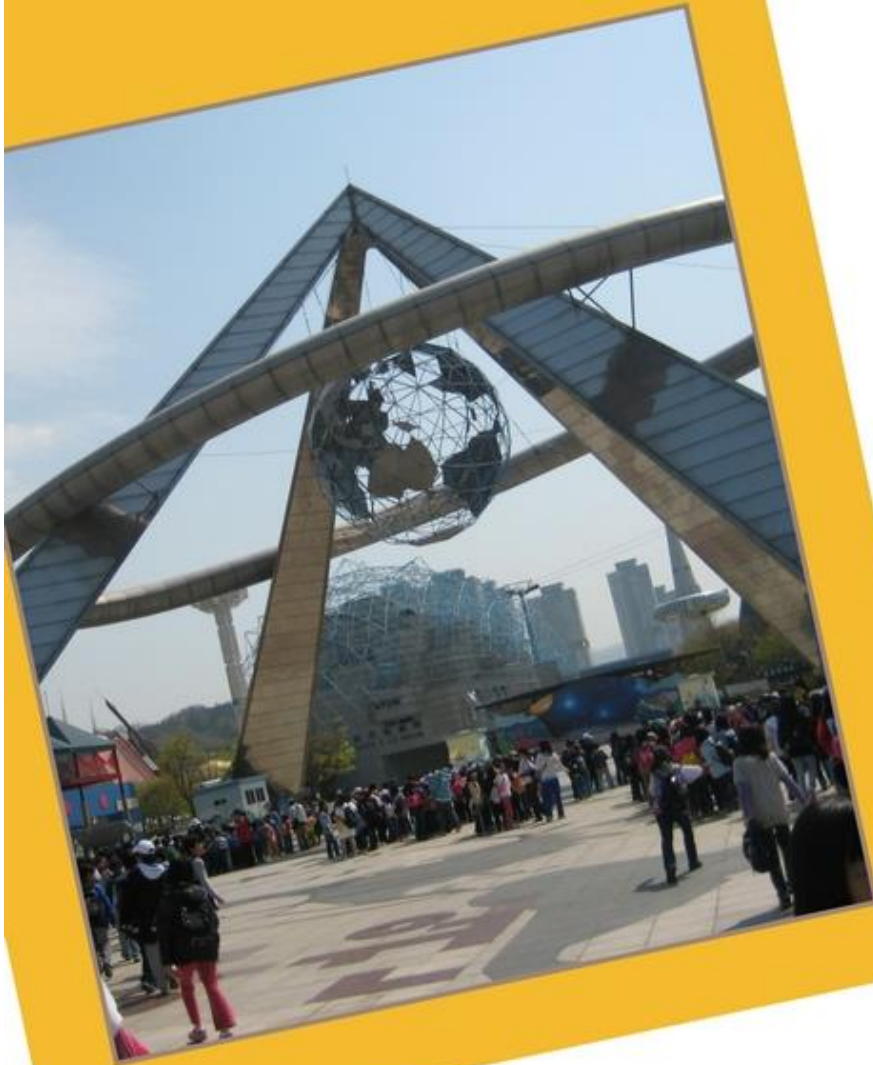

SUMMER 2017

Dongdaemun Market started as a traditional market in 1905 and experienced its first major transformation in 1970s as it began to develop as a center of the textile industry (both wholesale and retail), further contributing to the fast economic growth of Korea at that time. With the later construction of mega shopping buildings in the area, the market became reborn as the most famous fashion street in Korea.

Daejeon Science Museum

SUMMER 2017

The National Science Museum is a scientific culture facility which studies and exhibits various scientific materials. At its center is the Astronomical Hall, which is the largest dome in Korea. From here you can vividly see the phenomenon of the celestial sphere and the human development of space. It also has the only world-class space theater in Korea. The 242 seats are available on a first-come first-serve basis. It can re-create the appearance of a night sky, the highlight being the view of the starlight at the planetarium. The Astrovision is also a special visual device, giving a magnificent and realistic view of space development.

Currency Museum

SUMMER 2017

The Currency Museum of Korea is the first museum in Korea to be dedicated solely to modern and ancient currencies. The museum (est. 1988) is operated by the Mint Corporation of Korea as part of its non-profit public services and is open to visitors free of charge with a view of increasing public knowledge of the nation's currency. The museum features a total of 120,000 pieces including: coins currently in use both in Korea and overseas; coins from modern times (from the Late Joseon Dynasty until today); 80 types of commemorative coins; 88 types of 'special money'; postage stamps, and other materials.

Lotte World

SUMMER 2017

Lotte World is the perfect spot for entertainment and sightseeing. It is a theme park filled with thrilling rides, an ice rink and different kinds of parades, as well as a folk museum, a lake, and much more. Lotte World is divided into an indoor Adventure theme, and Magic Island theme outdoors, next to Seokchonhosu Lake. Lotte World Adventure has districts representing different countries with various kinds of facilities and souvenir shops. You can enjoy watching parades, numerous films, laser shows, and tasting a variety of international cuisines even during the holidays. Magic Island, where the dazzling Magic Castle is located, is also the venue of exhilarating, high-altitude rides.

CGV Cinema

SUMMER 2017

CGV is the largest multiplex cinema chain in South Korea, and also has branches in China, Vietnam and the United States. CGV takes its name from the first letter of the three words; Cultural, Great and Vital.

Sol International Culinary Art Department (SICA)

A degree in culinary arts offers more than just an education in cooking fundamentals. It offers a wealth of opportunities in an exciting, fast-paced and growing industry. SICA offer a wide range of cooking classes from baking to wine tasting. All classes are taught in a 5-star facility at Woosong SICA building.

Boryeong Mud Festival

SUMMER 2017

During the festival period, tourists flock to the area to experience the beneficial properties of the Boryeong mud, and also to have lots of fun. Fully immersed in the both the mud and the festival's great atmosphere, visitors enjoy mud wrestling, mud sliding and even swimming in the mud mega tub. Visitors feeling particularly energetic can try the marine mud-training course, whilst those looking for something more chilled can relax in the mud massage zone. In the evening, music and fireworks continue the party on the beach.

Busan Aquarium

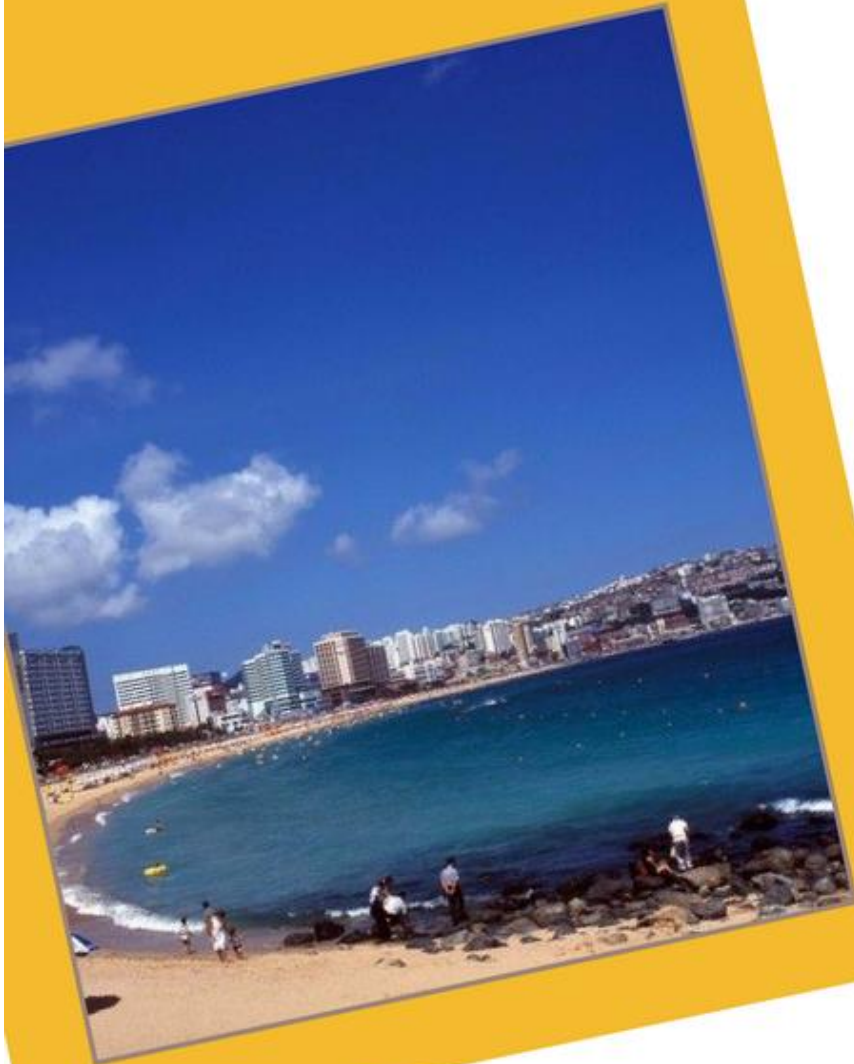

SUMMER 2017

Busan Aquarium contains over 35,000 species of fish, algae, reptiles, and amphibians. This state-of-the-art facility is one of Korea's top aquariums. The aquarium covers an area of 36,000 m² and is spread over 3 underground levels and features an outdoor park. The third underground level boasts has a tunnel. The tunnel experience resembles a walk along the ocean floor with various sea creatures swimming above. This is a very popular area of the aquarium and is sure to amaze visitors. The simulator also stimulates the imagination and provides a unique feeling of life on the ocean floor.

Haeundae Beach

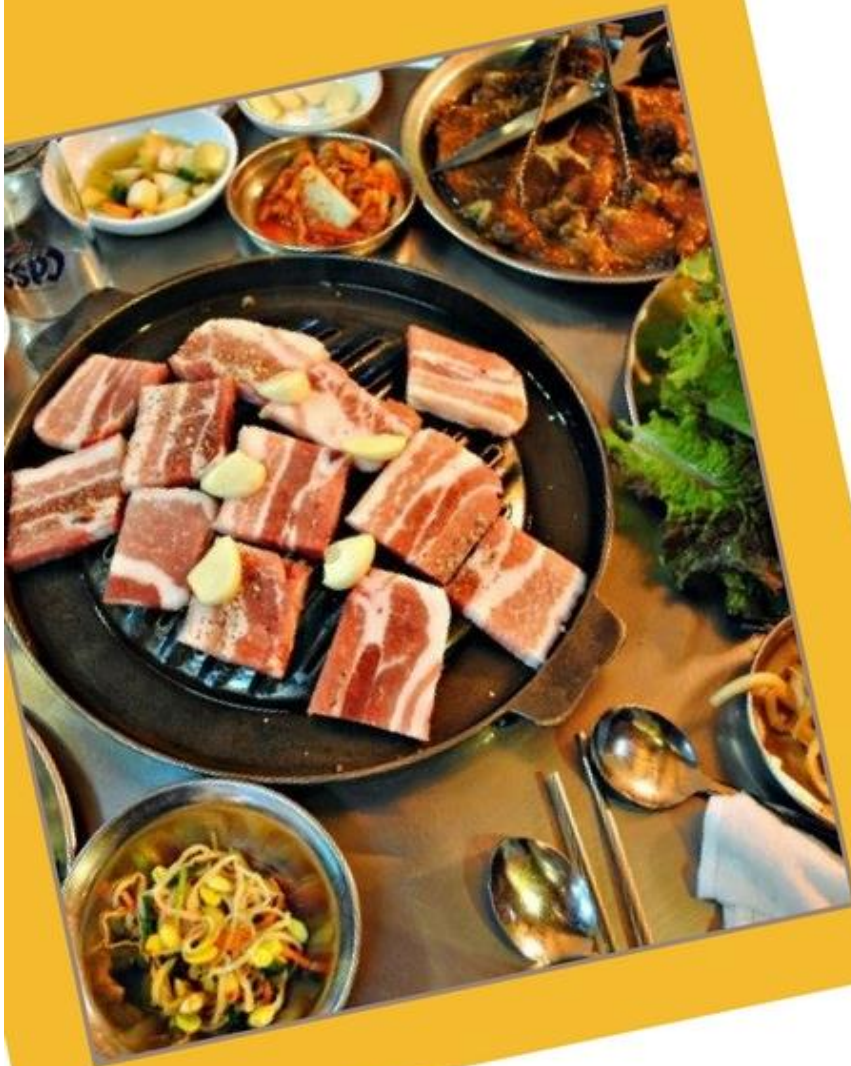

SUMMER 2017

Haeundae is 1.5 km long, 30-50m wide, and spans an area of 58,400 m². The white sand is rough and sticks easily to your skin. The sand of this beach is composed of sand that comes from Chuncheon Stream and shells that have been naturally eroded by the wind over time. Haeundae Beach is also famous for the various cultural events and festivals held throughout the year. At Haeundae Beach there is a Folk Square where you can enjoy traditional games such as neolttwigi (seesaw jumping), Korean wrestling, tuho (arrow throwing), tug-of-war and yutnori.

Samgyeopsal

SUMMER 2017

Samgyeopsal is a popular Korean dish that is commonly served as an evening meal. It consists of thick, fatty slices of pork belly meat. The meat, usually neither marinated nor seasoned, is cooked on a grill at the diners' table. Usually diners grill the meat themselves and eat directly from a grill. It is typically served with ssamjang, vegetables, and lettuce leaves to wrap it in.

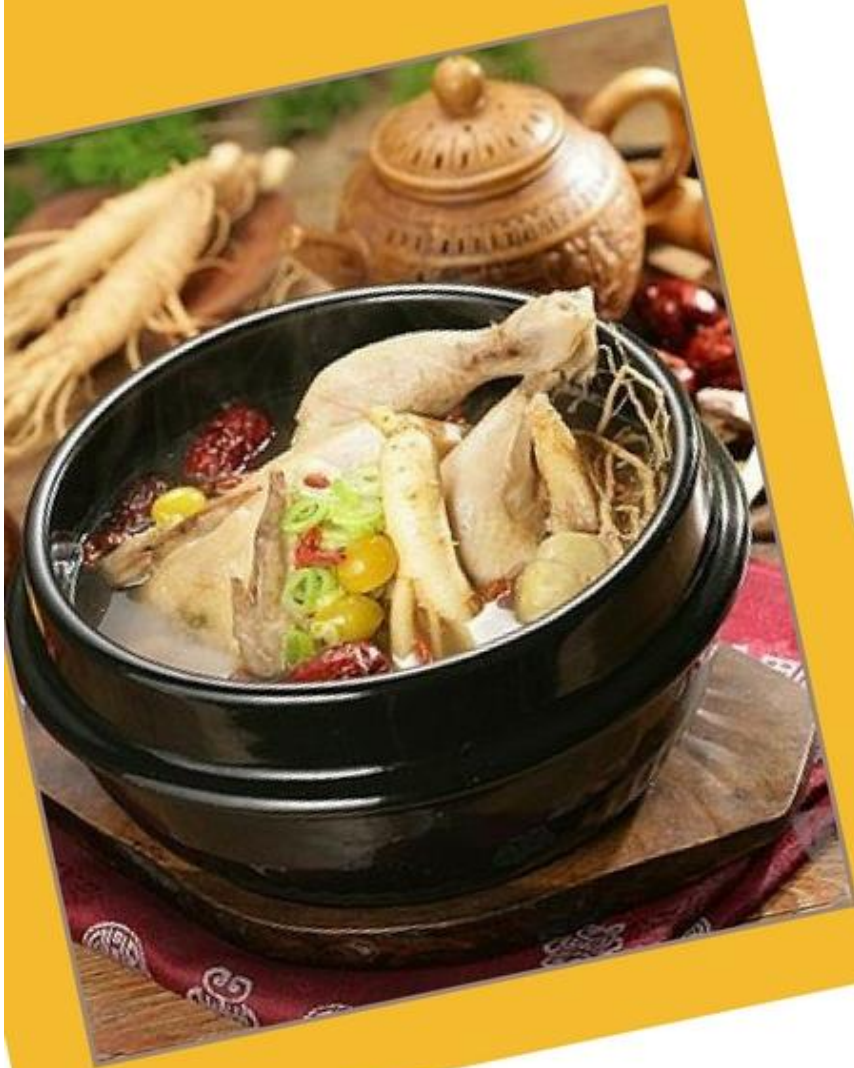

Korean Fried Chicken

It's a fried chicken dish prepared in a Korean style. It is consumed as a meal, fast food at bars, or as an after meal snack in Korea. Korean fried chicken differs from typical American fried chicken by being fried twice. This results in the skin being crunchier and less greasy. The chickens are usually seasoned with spices, sugar, and salt, prior to and after being fried. The chicken is usually hand painted with a brush, to evenly coat the chicken with a thin layer of sauce. Pickled radishes, beer, and soju are often served with Korean fried chicken.

Samgyetang

SUMMER 2017

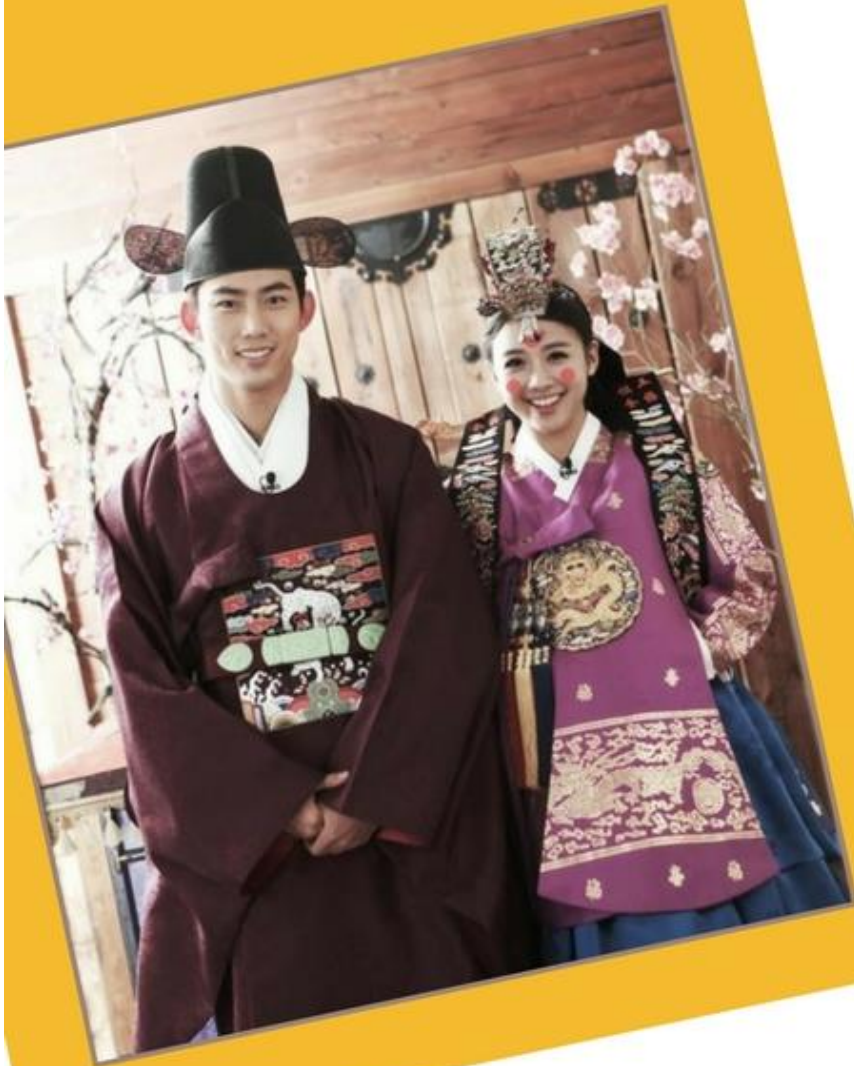

Samgyetang means ginseng chicken soup. It consists primarily of a whole chicken filled with various ingredients. Samgyetang is a warm soup for hot summer days. It is especially popular to eat this chicken soup on sambok (삼복) days, which are three distinct days of the lunar calendar which are commonly among the hottest summer and most sultry days in Korea.

Hanbok

SUMMER 2017
