

Passport of the programme

Field of study	Management
Educational Programme	International Business and Project Management
Mode of study	Full-time
Duration	2 years
Labour intensity	120 credit points
Language of instruction	English
Minimal requirement to the previous education	Bachelor`s degree
Entrance examinations	Portfolio competition
Degree awarded	Master`s degree
Programme coordinator	Sokolova Daria Andreevna selivanova.da@dvfu.ru Tel: +79149617744

Main courses

Semester	Subject (course of study)	Labour intensity (credit units)
1	Critical Thinking and Research	5
1	Economics and Management: Adaptation Course	5
1	The theory of organizations and organizational behaviour	4
1	Managarial Economics	3
1	Project management	4
1	Research Workshop	3
1	Innovative management	3
1	Educational practice to obtain primary professional skills	3

Part 2 (information)

General information about the programme	The program is giving students the knowledge about international business experience and managing the projects. Students, as well, will study features and the role of major events happening in the Asia-Pacific Region, trends of forming and developing of different social nets (trade, politics, economics) in the modern international business. This program is for those, who: <ul style="list-style-type: none">● wants to acquire and develop certain management skills for cooperation with international partners;● wants to study the best world practices of conducting and managing the business for sustainable development of the company● wants to acquire and develop skills for project activity for creating and implementation of the project, taking into account the practice of international projects
Competences acquired	-an ability to quickly master new subject field, identify contradictions, problems and develop alternative solutions - ability of scientific and professional communication in a multicultural environment; -skills of formation of business ideas, motivating a concept of the project and applying knowledge gained in the educational process
Competitive advantages	Ability to work in a team for the development of project ideas and project development. Through teamwork and interaction both between team members and teachers, students will receive practical skills in project design, management decision-making in its implementation, effective control over its regulation, and in project change management, relying on world practice techniques

Areas of possible professional activity and employment	The acquired knowledge and acquired competencies will allow graduates of this master's program to get a job not only in large Russian, but also foreign companies. Moreover, the experience of the project activity will enable the creation of their own project.